REASONS FOR ELECTING BRYAN.

STRONG SPEECH BY MAJ. GUTHRIE.

Bryan Should be Elected to Preserve the American Republic—Hanna Says There Are No Trusts and Ingersoll Used to Say There Was No Hell—Monopolies Should be Destroyed and the Complete Slavery of the People Averted—The Nicaragua Canal Discussed.

The speech of Maj. William A. Guthrie, Democratic elector for this district, in the court house last night, was one of the best political speeches heard in Greensboro in a long while. Major Guthrie is a clear, forceful and entertaining speaker and holds the closest attention of his hearers. Unfortunately his hearers last night were not as numerous as they might have been, though smaller crowds have greeted political speakers in Greensboro.

The speaker was introduced by Mr. J. W. Forbis, who spoke of the importance of the people coming together and considering the great issues before the country for solution.

Major Guthrie began his speech by saying that the year 1900 would be memorable in North Carolina as election year, and while there had been a surfeit of politics and political speaking, the work of the people would not be concluded until Bryan should be elected president. He said there were so many good reasons why Bryan should be elected that he hardly knew where to begin his argument. The Kansas City platform contained 25 reasons, but any man of average intelligence could add a hundred more.

The Major said he was a believer in coincidences. In 1796 John Adams defeated Thomas Jefferson for the presidency, but in 1800, just a century ago, Jefferson defeated Adams. In 1824 John Quincy Adams defeated Andrew Jackson, and four years later was defeated by "Old Hickory." In 1896 McKinley brought his trust forces together, intimidated labor and was declared elected president, but in this year of grace he was nominated on the dark of the moon and is therefore bound to meet defeat.

Major Guthrie read from the Declaration of Rights, promulgated by the patriots at Halifax in 1773 and incorporated in the constitution of North Carolina in 1788, to show that all political power is vested in the people only, that the people of the State have the sole and exclusive right to regulate their internal government, and that "perpetuities and monopolies are contrary to the genius of a free State and ought not to be allowed to exist." The speaker said there were monopolies in the colonial days, and this was why the latter clause quoted was included in the Declaration of Rights. He explained what a trust or monopoly was by a happy illustration and made a clear distinction between partnerships and monopolies. A partnership exists for a term of years and is dissolved; a monopoly is chartered by the State and exists perpetually.

Continuing, Major Guthrie said: "Hanna says there are no trusts. Well, Bob Ingersoll used to say there was no hell, but he never got Christian people to believe him. There may be no trusts, according to Mark Hanna's idea, but the directors of the American Tobacco Company can fix the price of the raw material and squeeze the life out of the producer. If you allow this perpetuity to exist you will continue in slavery. Let's get together and destroy every private monopoly, let the consequences be what they may. When we destroy the trusts and monopolies we will get capital and labor together. So firm a hold have the trusts on the business interests of the country that I haven't seen the term, 'competition is the life of trade,' for ten years until the other day, and it was in a Greensboro paper."

The speaker referred to the strained relations at present existing between capital and labor in certain sections of this State and declared that the working people of North Carolina would never submit to an ordering saying they should not join a labor union, or to any other sort of dictation.

Major Guthrie paid his respects to the policy of the Republican party in protecting and fostering the trusts and in reaching out for new territory to plunder. He said he was once a Republican himself, and might be today had he not been convinced of a hell and a hereafter.

He called attention to the declaration in the Democratic platform in favor of building the Nicaragua Canal, to be owned and controlled by the United States exclusively, and contrasted this determination with the dilatory tactics of the Republican party, which listens to England and the great transcontinental railways and refused to build the canal. The building of the canal would shorten the distance between the Atlantic seaboard and the markets of Asia and other eastern countries by 11,000 miles.

Major Guthrie closed his speech with an appeal to every Democrat to exert all his influence to secure the election of Bryan to the presidency and the return of Hon. W. W. Kitchen to Congress.

POPULAR YOUNG PEOPLE WED.

Mr. Bennett and Miss Holt Married at Oak Ridge—Will Reside in Nebraska.

A beautiful marriage was celebrated at Oak Ridge yesterday, the contracting parties being Mr. J. T. Bennett, of Nebraska, and Miss Myrtle Holt, the attractive and popular daughter of Prof. and Mrs. M. H. Holt. The ceremony was performed by Rev. T. M. Johnson, of this city, in the presence of a large company of friends.

Mr. Bennett was at one time a teacher in Oak Ridge Institute, but now resides in Nebraska. He is a bright young man and has a promising future before him. His bride is one of Guilford's fairest and most accomplished daughters, numbering her friends by the circle of her acquaintance.

Mr. and Mrs. Bennett were in Greensboro last night, leaving for Washington and other points of interest, where they will spend some time before going to Nebraska.

A BIG ARBITRATION SUIT.

A Considerable Amount of Property in Eastern Guilford Involved.

A big arbitration suit has been in progress here this week between Dr. John C. Clapp and Mr. Jacob Clapp, of the eastern part of the county. The suit involved 170 acres of land, a mill site and a foundry site. The hearing, which was held before Col. W. H. Osborn and Messrs. W. O. Stratford and C. P. Frazier, was concluded yesterday afternoon, though the arbitrators have not yet rendered a decision. The case was argued by Maj. L. M. Scott and Col. John A. Barringer.

Will Stokes County Go Democratic?

The statement is made, and it is given for the truth, that there are good prospects of Democratic success in Stokes county in the coming election! It would be a most surprising occurrence, and decidedly out of the ordinary, but the Democrats of the county have been working faithfully for the past few years. The Republican majority, which was at one time appalling, has been reduced from time to time.

Mr. W. W. King, a brother of Messrs. R. R. and J. L. King, is the Democratic chairman.

The Southern Railway to Vestibule All Day Coaches.

The Southern Railway is constantly improving its passenger train service, which is now probably second to none in the South. The Telegram is informed that the latest improvement is a decision on the part of the officers of the company to vestibule all day coaches on the main line between Washington and Atlanta. This will be done, it is said, in the near future.

Another Wreck on the Virginia Midland.

The Virginia Midland division Southern Railway is keeping up its record for wrecks. A freight wreck this side of Lynchburg last night delayed the southbound fast mail and vestibule trains this morning about five hours, both of them arriving here after 10 o'clock.

Manufacturing Enterprise Chartered.

The Tomlinson Chair Manufacturing Company, of High Point, has been chartered by the Secretary of State. The incorporators are Messrs. W. T. Parker, S. H. Tomlinson and C. F. Tomlinson. The term of the charter is 30 years.

To Campaign for Carr.

Mr. Wiley Swift, a student at the University of North Carolina, was here last night. He was on his way to Catawba county, where he will take the stump in the interest of Gen. J. S. Carr's Senatorial candidacy.

HERE AND IN HIGH POINT.

NEW ENGLANDERS VISITING TODAY.

Thirty-five Manufacturers Who Are Touring the South Being Entertained by the Chamber of Commerce—The Benzine Explosion Was Caused by a Lighted Lantern in the Hands of a Man Trying to See in the Tank.

Correspondence of the Telegram.

High Point, Oct. 19.—The explosion here Wednesday night was caused from a lighted lantern in the hands of Mr. Toy Wilson, who drives the Standard Oil Company's wagon at this place. During the day a benzine tank on a car, holding about 8,000 gallons of fluid had been emptied, and as Mr. Wilson wanted to see if any remained inside, he, with lantern in hand, was attempting to look down the hole in the top of the tank when great sheets of flames shot in the air followed by a terrific explosion. The lantern was blown to atoms. As soon as the flames shot forth, Mr. Wilson jumped or fell—he hardly knows himself—anyhow, he struck the ground. He escaped unhurt; remarkable to say. The tank was not damaged.

A telegram was received here last night, stating that a party of New England cotton mill men would visit our town this afternoon. There are 35 in number traveling in a special car and are on their way south from Washington, where they have been attending a convention of cotton mill men. While here, they will be the guests of the chamber of commerce. High Point extends the hand of welcome to these northern gentlemen, and if they see cause to cast some of their means within her borders, the same shall be received with a due amount of appreciation.

High Point needs a cotton mill and we are of the opinion that nowhere could capital be invested more profitably in such an enterprise than at this place.

Mr. A. S. Allison has disposed of his house and lot on East Washington street to Mr. Emerson Idol. Mr. Ellison contemplates building in another part of town.

The Jarrell hotel office has undergone repairs in the way of new flooring, etc. This looks better now, brother Burns.

The person who stole Lee Cartland's bicycle has not been apprehended as yet. Lee should not leave his wheel on the street so late at night when he goes courting.

COTTON MANUFACTURERS HERE.

New England Mill People Visit Greensboro on a Southern Tour.

Thirty-five members of the New England Cotton Manufacturers Association arrived in Greensboro shortly after 3 o'clock this afternoon, traveling on a special train. They visited the Proximity Cotton Mills and took lunch at the Huffines House, after which they left for High Point.

While here the cotton mill people were met by a number of the manufacturers and other business men of Greensboro and High Point, who extended them a cordial welcome.

The members of the party are just from the meeting of their association, in Washington, and are accompanied by Mr. M. V. Richards, the industrial agent of the Southern Railway. In addition to Greensboro and High Point, they will visit Salisbury, Concord, Charlotte and Asheville, in this State, and many of the manufacturing towns in South Carolina, Georgia and Alabama.

They are making the trip as guests of the Southern Railway.

Cotton Mill Situation in Alamance Unchanged.

There are no new developments in the cotton mill situation in Alamance county. The union operatives are still out and say they will never go back to work until the union is recognized, unless forced to do so by hunger. It is estimated that nearly 5,000 people are out of employment.

So far as can be ascertained, the sympathy of the general public in Alamance is with the operatives.

The Board of Aldermen will meet in special session tonight for the purpose of conferring with representatives of the Hook and Ladder Company and the Eagle Hose Company. An effort will be made to retain these companies in the fire department.

MAJ. PETERSON WAS FROM SAMPSON

Has a Widowed Mother and a Sister Living in This State Now—The Devoted Wife Who Followed Him in Death Was a Native of Cincinnati.

The Telegram yesterday published the fact that Maj. M. W. Peterson, a North Carolinian in the army in Cuba, died yesterday morning of fever, and one hour later his devoted wife, unable to stand the separation, killed herself. The fuller Associated Press dispatch of last night from Havana says:

"Major Peterson, the chief commissary of Cuba, died today of yellow fever. Mrs. Peterson, his wife, who arrived here last Monday from Cincinnati to nurse him, shot herself in the head with a revolver one hour after the major's death and died instantly. The remains of Major Peterson and his wife were interred this afternoon with military honors. The flags at El Moro and on the public buildings were at half-mast. The tragic occurrence has greatly depressed the whole military community in Havana."

An Associated Press dispatch from Washington says:

"Major Peterson was of the commissary department and held the rank of captain of the regular establishment. He was a graduate of West Point, and was appointed from North Carolina."

"Mrs. Peterson was the daughter of a prominent business man of Cincinnati, and was gifted with unusual charms of person and mind. Her devotion to her husband is indicated by the tragic manner of her death."

A special to the Charlotte Observer from Raleigh says that Maj. M. W. Peterson, who died in Cuba, was a native of Clinton, Sampson county, where his widowed mother and sister live and has relatives living in Wilmington. He was a graduate of West Point and until shortly before the Spanish-American war was a lieutenant in the regular army. At the breaking out of the war he was promoted to major in the volunteers and sent to Cuba.

THE ALAMANCE TROUBLE.

Everybody Wants the Mills to Start Running, and the Operatives are Ready to Go to Work.

Alamance Gleaner.

The trouble between the mill owners and the operatives who are members of the Union of Textile Workers came to a focus Monday when the union members did not return to work, having been notified that no union labor would be employed. Not only the union members, but hundreds of others in sympathy with them, did not return to work.

Monday night the court room was packed with union mill people and others and was addressed by Messrs. J. R. Thomas, C. P. Davis, the latter of High Point, and the State organizer of the Textile Union, and others.

Tuesday morning about 250 union members from Haw River marched to Graham. Here they were joined by something like 500 others of this place and other mills in the county. A procession was formed which marched around two or three squares, returning to the courthouse, where they were addressed by the above named speakers and others, who counseled them to be on their good behavior and to commit no unlawful act and to do no violence in any way, but to be quiet and orderly. They received and acted upon the good advice given them, and are to be congratulated upon the splendid order maintained throughout.

We are informed there are fully 2,000 members of the union in the county and that it is daily receiving accessions. Hundreds are uniting with the union who would not have done so, had this trouble not happened.

It is hoped that the trouble will soon be settled; it is disturbing business not only at the mills, but throughout the county. We doubt if more pleasant relations ever existed between mill owners and operatives than in this county prior to the present trouble. Everybody wants the mills to run and if the mill owners will withdraw their objections to union laborers, the operatives will cheerfully return to their work.

SWOOPED DOWN ON MARKLE.

STRIKERS CLOSE OAKDALE MINE.

Mother Mary Jones Leads Eight Hundred of the Strikers and They Close Down a Mine—Sheriff Threatened to Arrest Her If She Did Not Get Away and She Left.

By Wire to The Telegram.

HAZLETON, Oct. 19.—That Markle's collieries should be working has all along been a thorn in the side of the strike leaders, and they long ago determined to close down operations there. Not, however, till this morning was there a concerted effort made to do this. Then eight hundred strikers swooped down on Oakdale Mine No. 4 and drove out the men working there.

This accomplished, they attempted to close the other Markle collieries farther up the valley. On their approach to the Jeddco colliery the mob was met by Sheriff Harvey and a force of deputies who opposed the mob's progress. Harvey told Mary Jones, who was leading the mob, that if she did not immediately make herself scarce, he would arrest her, and she at once departed with her followers. With the exception of the closing down of the colliery at Oakdale the attempt was foiled.

BRYAN HOARSE THIS MORNING.

Is Giving the Upper New Yorkers Talks on Imperialism and Monopoly.

By Wire to The Telegram.

Auburn, N. Y., Oct. 19.—Mr. Bryan left Syracuse this morning and spoke at towns along the New York Central. At the first place he stopped he showed much hoarseness but he has improved in voice. His topics today were principally imperialism and monopolies.

FEARED ATTACK BY BOERS.

This is the Reason Mr. Kruger's Secretary Gives for His Embarkation.

By Wire to The Telegram.

Lorenzo Marquez, Oct. 19.—Kruger's secretary was taken abroad at 5 this morning on the Dutch ship, Golderland which will sail in a few hours. The reason given by the secretary for his embarkation was that he feared the Boers here would attack him.

Hurricane Cut Off 68,000 Bales of Cotton.

By Wire to The Telegram.

Washington, Oct. 19.—The government estimates the reduction in the cotton crop by the Texas hurricane at 68 thousand bales. This on a basis of fifty dollars per bale equals a loss of three million four hundred thousand dollars.

Ministers Ready to Negotiate.

By Wire to The Telegram.

Washington, Oct. 19.—Minister Conger and all other envoys at Peking have been instructed to enter into negotiations with the Chinese commissioners. Prince Ching and Li Hung Chang will have their first meeting tomorrow.

BY TELEGRAPH TODAY.

It is reported in London that Joseph Chamberlain, the Secretary of State for the colonies, is projecting a visit to the West Indies in order to personally see the effects of the subsidizing policy.

Two trains ran into each other on the new metropolitan underground railroad of Paris this morning and injured 29 persons.

A Shanghai dispatch says that a thousand French troops have taken Ting Chone, on the northern border of the Shantung province.

Roosevelt spent the day in West Virginia. He seems to have gained strength in voice and movement.

Six persons who have been ill of the bubonic plague in Glasgow were discharged this morning. Fourteen cases are still being treated in the hospitals.

Lord Roberts reports from Pretoria under date of yesterday that a party of Boers got into Jagersfontein on the night of the sixteenth and a fight ensued in the morning in which eleven British were killed. The Boers lost a commandant and twenty killed. Gen. Kelly-Kenny has dispatched a column under Hughes-Hallet which should reach Jagersfontein today.

COTTON MILL MEN WILL WIN.

A NEWSPAPER MAN SO PREDICTS.

They Have Plenty of Manufactured Goods and Little Cotton, and Hence Can Afford to Wait—The Foreign Answers of the Corporation Commission—Republicans Have no Idea of Winning in the Eighth and Claim Only a Fighting Chance in the Ninth.

Special Correspondence of The Telegram.

Raleigh, Oct. 19.—At the next meeting of the Monday Evening Club here North Carolina's best known poets resident in the State will read some of their own selections. They are Henry Jerome Stockard and B. F. Sladd.

Rev. John E. White, secretary of the State mission board, left for Baltimore today on mission board work. He is called to the pastorate of the second Baptist church in Atlanta and tells me he will most probably accept it, but he will not know definitely until next Tuesday.

President Charles McNamee, of the State fair, arrived here today, after two months absence in Europe, and took charge of affairs.

The corporation commission authorizes the Seaboard Air Line to give special rates of freight on materials to be used in building cotton mills at Lumberton, Pee Dee and Henderson.

There are now 5,062 confederate pensioners in this State, or 180 more than last year. The fund is $113,000. First class pensioners will get $58 a year, second class $49.50, third class $29, fourth class and widows $14.50. The fund this year is a little less than it was last year, because it then got $5,000 from the land grant fund.

The corporation commission had a long session today. It took up the general docket. It also looked after two or three special complaints. One of them was made by James Kyle, of the Wilmington Tariff Association, in behalf of the cotton mills in that place and elsewhere in the State, particularly at Fayetteville and Laurinburg, and asked for a reduction of 20 per cent. in freight rates on cotton piece goods from the mills to points within the State, so as to bring the North Carolina rate to the same figure as the Georgia rate. Another special complaint was by the furniture manufacturers, who were strongly represented. They asked for a lower classification so as to secure a consequent lower freight rate. Both of these matters will come up again on November 15th.

The commissioners have their jokes like the rest of the world. A complaint was read "from citizens of Turkey." "Foreign relations," said one of the commissioners, with a smile. In a moment another was read from Canton. "More of our foreign affairs," was the remark. Lastly there was one from Cerro Gordo. "Our Mexican business," was the comment.

B. C. Beckwith, Democratic nominee for elector in this district, came in today from a campaign tour. He said, "wherever I go I find that everybody will vote the Democratic ticket and that they are as mad as h—l about the Senatorial fight. The first question they ask is who are you for for Senator?"

Clerk Brown of the commission is certainly a jewel. One often hears of an invaluable man. He fills the bill exactly. The commission despatches business in such a way as to be a model. In the centre sits the chief justice, Mr. M. McNeil, with S. L. Rogers on his right and D. H. Abbott on his left. The office is admirably kept. The commission has the respect alike of the railways and corporations generally and of the public and certainly deserves it fully.

The Republican leaders here, it may be remarked, have no sort of idea that they will carry the Eighth district. Spencer Blackburn and his part of the outfit have laughed at Junius Brutus Fortune and the insurgents. But the fact is the Republican margin is small any way and any defection will literally slay Blackburn. The Republicans here now go no further than to say they have a "fighting chance" in the Ninth district. That is the best foot they can put forward.

There was frost today. It put at rest any idea that the much talked of "top crop" of cotton would amount to anything. With a month of warm and frostless weather there would have been a top crop.

Francis D. Winston, State organizer of Democratic clubs, says that so far sixty per cent of the white supremacy clubs in the State have been changed into Bryan and Stevenson clubs.

The State museum will set apart one of its largest halls in the new annex for use as a history room. It will not be in charge of any association, but under control of the museum entirely. Some papers said it would be turned over to the Confederate camp, others that the literary and historical association would have charge of it. The fact is that the collections to be placed in the hall will cover all the periods of the State's history; under the Lords proprietors, as a crown colony, during the revolution, prior to the civil war, the civil war and the after-the-war periods. A very great and noticeable collection will thus be built up; far greater and better than any other way. The museum's the show-place of North Carolina. It is such now; it will be even more so as years pass. The whole people ought to work in its interest.

The museum today secured as a loan a die from which one of the Bechtler gold coins was struck at Rutherfordton. It is the property of Brainerd Whiting, of Hamlet.

A MONSTER DEVIL FISH

Destroying its victim, is a type of constipation. The power of this murderous malady is felt on organs and nerves and muscles and brain. There is no health till it's overcome. But Dr. King's New Life Pills are a safe and certain cure. Best in the world for stomach, liver, kidneys and bowels. Only 25 cents at C. E. Holton's drug store.

When a butcher plays poker he probably plays for grub stakes.

No, Maude, dear, a duel that lasts only a minute doesn't require sixty seconds.

COLD STEEL OR DEATH.

"There is but one small chance to save your life and that is through an operation," was the awful prospect set before Mrs. I. B. Hunt, of Lime Ridge, Wis., by her doctor after vainly trying to cure her of a frightful case of stomach trouble and yellow jaundice. He didn't count on the marvellous power of Electric Bitters to cure stomach and liver troubles, but she heard of it, took seven bottles, was wholly cured, avoided surgeon's knife, now weighs more and feels better than ever. It's positively guaranteed to cure stomach, liver and kidney troubles and never disappoints. Price 50c at C. E. Holton's drug store.

Mr. Bryan yesterday received the official notification of his nomination by the Silver Republicans.

QUESTIONS ANSWERED.

Yes, August Flower still has the largest sale of any medicine in the civilized world. Your mothers and grandmothers never thought of using anything else for indigestion or biliousness. Doctors were scarce, and they seldom heard of appendicitis, nervous prostration or heart failure, etc. They used August Flower to clean out the system and stop fermentation of undigested food, regulate the action of the liver, stimulate the nervous and organic action of the system, and that is all they took when feeling dull and bad with headaches and other ailments. You only need a few doses of Green's August Flower, in liquid form, to make you satisfied there is nothing serious the matter with you. For sale by Grissom & Fordham.

LEGAL ARBITRATION.

In his speech last night Maj. Guthrie said, on the authority of a resident of Massachusetts, that New England had passed the period of strikes and serious conflicts between labor and capital, this having been accomplished by State boards of arbitration. That the officers of the labor organizations made contracts with the employes for two years, and the law compelled the fulfilling of this contract the same as any other, and that in case of disagreement between the two parties the points at issue were referred to the State board of arbitration, which acted upon them judicially. We were not aware that any of our States had these boards as legal institutions, but, "come to think of it," it is a fact that we do not read of strikes in New England as in other sections of the country. If this is the reason, so much the better for New England. This is the only way that strikes and their disastrous consequences will ever be avoided. In some countries where the principle of arbitration is legalized strikes are entirely unknown. Furthermore, this arrangement is to the advantage of employer as well as to employed. This cardinal principle of justice is as old as the idea of justice itself, and it is the only one that will prevent the possibility of might making right.

The senatorial primary furnishes more fun for the price of admission than any other attraction that has visited this section.—Durham Herald.

There be some who deplore this senatorial fight as likely to smash the Democratic party. The Newbern Journal, we believe, suggests that if the old ship is so frail as all that, it is time for her to be smashed, or words to that effect. We are friendly to all harmless diversion for the people, from circuses to senatorial primaries, so let her rock. Besides, it is useful. We have the word of ex-Senator Jarvis that without the primary, folks wouldn't know that an election is on hand. We don't care how much the candidates fight, but we do regret to see some of the brethren of the press so wrought up over a matter that will not be worth a green persimmon to them and for which they will get no thanks after it's all over. But that is their business and we are not attempting to meddle with it.

The subjoined extract, from a staunch Democratic paper of this district, we submit as a novel utterance in North Carolina journalism:

It was our privilege to listen to Mr. John R. McCrary's speech on Saturday night and we gladly testify that the young man was fluent, strong and clear in his statements. He is a Republican and views national politics from a Republican standpoint, and therefore many of his views are at variance with those of Democrats, but they seemed to be honest convictions that were expressed in a way to command respect. The speech really sounded like the new era in politics that we promised ourselves in the adoption of the constitutional amendment. It was noticeable, too, that it was not the kind on which the colored voters are usually fed and most of them left. Mr. McCrary, though a young man, seems to have set a precedent that may well guide the course of older Republicans in the South if Republicanism is to take a place of respectability along with Democracy.

In 1886 Webster Davis was the favorite Republican "spell-binder" and his speeches were largely applauded by the Hannaites. When McKinley was elected, he gave Davis a $5,000 position as Assistant Secretary of the Interior and the Republicans proclaimed him a big man. Now that he is supporting Bryan, the Republicans say that Davis amounts to nothing.—News and Observer.

Are you angry because they have assumed your policy of sizing men up, friend?

In the recent contest for immortals for the "Hall of Fame" in New York one judge voted for Samuel Adams, John Adams and John Quincy Adams. A correspondent of the Sun suggests that this list ought to have been completed by the judge with votes for Adam's ale, Adam's fall, Adam's apple, and Adam's Express Company.

Some of our contemporaries seem gratified that General Lee got a place in the "Hall of Fame," at the recent contest in New York. Considering some of the other choices made by the judges, it is not much of an honor after all.

ITEMS OF INTEREST.

Governor Roosevelt will finish his general campaign at Baltimore tonight, after having traveled nearly 19,000 miles, and after making nearly 500 speeches. Then he will spend the final week of the campaign in New York State. The Boston visit has been eliminated, and if possible Governor Roosevelt will spend next Sunday with his family in Albany.

General Wheeler and Lieutenant Hobson, who passed through yesterday, arrived in Montgomery last night, to attend the Wheeler and Hobson day at the fair. In behalf of Alabama General Wheeler will present Hobson with a loving cup.

The Youtsey trial is drawing rapidly to a close. All the testimony is in, the instructions have been given the jury and the speeches are being made. A verdict is expected by this afternoon. There is no improvement in Youtsey's condition, though he was not any worse yesterday. Now and then the paroxysms return and for an hour afterwards he is much worse, but is still able to rally, showing remarkable vitality. Opinion at Georgetown as to the verdict is divided, some thinking it will be guilty, while others believe in acquittal or a hung jury.

At Wheeling, West Virginia yesterday Roosevelt used this choice language: "I want to call your attention to a circular that has been circulated on these grounds by a lot of scoundrels. (Applause.) It contains what purports to be extracts from speeches I am said to have made, in one of which I am accused of saying that the way to get rid of Bryanism and labor troubles was to stand the offender up against the wall shoot him, and that person who would join a strike or go near one should be killed. They dare not give the dates of the speeches for there were no such speeches made, in New York, Chicago or anywhere else. The statements are lies, known to be lies by those who started them and by those who circulated them, and it is characteristic of the party which stands for the repudiation of the national debt, which stands for civil disorder and lawlessness at home and the dishonor of the flag abroad that it should take refuge in the foulest and most deliberate mendacity when all other methods fail."

Memorial services for the late Hon. Wm. L. Wilson, president of Washington and Lee University, were held in the University chapel at Lexington, yesterday afternoon. Rev. T. A. Hall, the dead man's pastor, conducted them and a touching memorial address was delivered by Rev. James A. Quarles, of the University. The edifice was filled with a sorrowing audience. The remains were interred at his old home at Charleston, West Virginia, at 12 o'clock today. Ex-President Cleveland attended the burial services.

Miss Gast rounded up the twenty-sixth century at 7:30 o'clock last night in New York. All obstacles toward completion of the 3,000-mile journey appeared to have been overcome, so by the far, little woman, who confidently expected to finish nearly Saturday evening. But today the sheriff at Valley Stream, L. I., stopped her on her 2625th mile, and prevented her finishing her her 30-century run.

In his speech at Little Falls, New York, yesterday, Mr. Bryan asserted that the crowd would have been larger if the manufacturers of the city had not prevented their employes from leaving their work in order to hear him.

At Canastota, Mr. Bryan repeated his declaration that the Republicans had amended the commandment so as to read: "Thou shalt not steal—on a small scale," and suggested another amendment to the Ten Commandments as being in consonance with the Republican policies. "Thou shalt not kill, unless there are more of you than of the other fellow."

At DeWitt there were a number of railroad men in Mr. Bryan's audience. He spoke to them of the "full dinner pail." He said even if there was a full dinner pail for the laboring man it would be impossible to trace its existence to the Republican party.

"The labor organizations of the country," he said, "have done more for labor in the past few years than the Republicans party could do in a century."

He also said that the newspaper organ of the locomotive firemen had been reduced 32 pages in size because of the increased price of paper due the paper trust, and said that the Republicans would probably be willing to cut all the remainder of the publication so that the readers of it could not get nothing to read except what the Republicans themselves might supply.

IMPORTANT!

Greensboro, N. C., Sept. 26th, 1900.

TO OUR CUSTOMERS:

On and after October 15th, 1900, we, the undersigned, will do a strictly cash business. Our reasons are as follows:

- 1st. Absolute NECESSITY.
- 2nd. Laundry, the world over, is a recognized cash business and justly so.
- 3rd. Our accounts are necessarily small, and it causes an endless amount of confusion and expense to collect, besides losses each year in bad bills.
- 4th. All of our current expenses, such as labor, fuel, gas and supplies are cash, hence the stand we take is forced upon us. While we very much regret, in most cases, to exact the spot cash, yet we must treat all alike, and we see no other way out of the difficulty. We trust our customers will lend us their aid by stating when to return laundry and by being prepared to pay for same when delivered. Our drivers will have positive instructions to return to the laundry all packages not paid for.

We have on sale at office (for cash) coupon books from $1 to $5 which can be left at convenient place at home, so that on delivery of bundle the amount of laundry bill can be torn out by the driver.

MISSOURY HELENY

By Juliette M. Babbitt.

"MISSOURY HELENY, put that book right down an' run an' pick up some chips to hurry up this plaguey fire—an' put on some taters to cook whilst I sets th' table. They's a man an' woman—mighty stylish-lookin' folks—what's los' ther way an' wants sumpin' t'eat jes' as quick as ever they kin git it. Lucky I baked yiste'day, an' had that hen on a-cookin' in. Jump, now, an' take yore min' off'n yore readin' long 'nuff to he'p me git th' dinner," and a talk, this woman, with scanty gray hair drawn tightly back from a fallow face, returned to the front room of a small weather-stained, story-and-a-half frame house where she had left one of her guests—a lady in a plain gray traveling dress—standing in the doorway looking out across the broad, level expanse of "bottom" land stretching away from the hills nearby to the Missouri river.

"Take th' rockin' cheer, ma'am, an' rest yoreself," said the hostess, pulling a table to the center of the room, covering it with a coarse but snowy cloth and bringing the dishes from the kitchen as she talked. "Yu mus' be pow'ful hongry if yo got yore brekfus to White's. They do say they hain't never nothin' fit to eat there. Strange how yu missed th' road to Jim Banion's—leastways th' place what he runs fur some eastern man; hits 'bout five mile from here, up t'other side th' Maple. Hope th' gentleman hain't havin' no trouble findin' th' feed. They's plenty out there. Jerry—that's my son—went over to town this mornin' an' hain't got back, an' my ol' man's out a-huntin'. They hain't nothin' Dan Holten loves better'n snoopin' 'roun' with his gun, less'n hits a-playin' on his fiddle, or readin' a story book. Missouri Heleny—going into the kitchen—is th' taters a-bilin'? That gurl—comin' back to place a dish of sliced cucumbers on the table—is jest like her pa fur readin' ev'ry scrap o' print she kin lay her han's on, an' she's crazy to git a education an' learn music. I lets her go to school when they is any, an' she knows 'bout as much now, as th' las' teacher, though she hain't but 16 las' May. Her pa named her fur th' state we come from an' a ilan' wher Bony-part wuz shet up to keep him out'n mischief. Well, I reckon dinner's ready if yu air," and she brought in a platter of stewed chicken which sent up an appetizing odor.

Passing shyly in and out, assisting the talkative woman, was a slender, fair-haired young girl in a faded blue calico dress. She scarcely lifted the long dark lashes veiling a pair of deep-blue eyes, and slipped away to her interrupted reading the moment the meal was ready.

Hugh Ramsey, a young New York lawyer, and his sister, Mrs. Zedek Morrison, were on their way to Omaha, where Mrs. Morrison purposed spending some time with a former schoolmate before joining her brother in Colorado, where he was going to look after some mining property. At a small town, between Sioux City and Council Bluffs, they left the train, that bright August morning, to visit a farm a dozen miles or so distant, which had been left to Mrs. Morrison by an uncle. After an unsatisfactory breakfast, they hired a pair of horses and an open buggy and, mistaking the direction, wandered about until noon found them very hungry, at the Holten place. They had not expected much from the appearance of the house and its mistress, and enjoyed all the more the excellent meal so soon ready for them, after which they proceeded on their way, taking the right road this time.

"Hugh, do you remember Missouri Heleny, the pretty girl where we got such a good dinner the day we were lost on our way to my Iowa farm?" asked Mrs. Morrison, the evening after her arrival at Colorado Springs.

"I remember the ridiculous name," answered Hugh Ramsey, lying at ease on a lounge in his sister's room, "and the woman, and, best of all, the dinner; but I can't say that I remember much about the girl. A thin, colorless little thing, wasn't she?"

Mrs. Morrison laughed and, drawing her low chair nearer, ran her fingers through his curly locks.

"You were hungry, not to notice such a pretty girl! She is rather thin and colorless now, but she will be a beauty one of these days, I promise you. I was hungry, too, but there was something so sweet about her, and what her mother said about her desire to learn haunted me so that I went up there one day and arranged for Lena—my won't call her by that dreadful name—to enter St. Mary's, at Omaha, for two years. Her mother, who is an old-fashioned Methodist, objected at first. She was afraid 'them Catholics' would 'prosserlite' the child; but Mr. Holten, a gentle, really refined sort of man, was very grateful for the opportunity offered his daughter, and spoke up with, judging by his wife's look of astonishment, unusual firmness, and she gave in. Jerry—a blond giant, a combination of his energetic mother and easy-going father—was on our side, and there Lena is, at St. Mary's, studying like everything, and happy as the day is long. I am only afraid of her working too hard; she is so anxious to improve every moment.

"Dear old Zedek, you are always doing good to someone," murmured her brother, pressing her white hand to his lips.

Hugh Ramsey was a tall, exceedingly good-looking young fellow—about 26—with dark hair and mustache and dark eyes, which, oftentimes, did more execution than their possessor realized or intended. His sister, some eight or ten years older, had the same dark eyes and curly dark hair, but was much shorter and inclined to be rather stout.

A childless widow with ample means, she was devoted to Hugh, and very fond of doing nice things for others. Hugh was also comfortably well off, and not at all dependent upon the profession he had chosen.

Two years after this conversation, Hugh, on another visit to the west, had stopped to look after his sister's property, and to see how her protegee was getting along. Six months before this, Mrs. Holten had been stricken with paralysis, and Lena had returned home to care for her and the little household, so helpless with the chief worker laid low.

HERALD SUMS UP THE VISIT.

MR. BRYAN'S EFFECT ON NEW YORK.

Crocker Claims the State by 80,000, Odell by 100,000—Betting Odds Went Down—Hill Men Disposed to be Miffed at Mr. Bryan's Complimentary References to Tammany Hall and its Prophet.

New York Herald, 18th.

With the plaudits of Tammany still ringing in his ears, William J. Bryan yesterday began his tour of New York State, trying to stampede the rural votes from the standard of Platt. He left behind him large numbers of Democratic and Republican politicians engaged in figuring out the effect on the voters of the reception tendered to him in this city.

The Democrats are very much encouraged, but it is not overstating it to say that the Republicans felt absolutely no alarm at the prospects of Mr. Bryan's getting New York's thirty-six electoral votes. To the McKinley managers the effect appeared much like that of a brass band or an hurrah—cheerful while it lasted, but soon spent.

Richard Crocker, now the acknowledged Bryan leader in the State, promptly announced that Greater New York would give Bryan 80,000 plurality, and that Bryan would carry the State by 30,000 plurality. B. B. Odell, Jr., the chairman of the Republican State committee, said that Bryan's meetings would really help the Republicans, and that McKinley would have a plurality of 100,000 in the State.

This is the first time in this campaign that Odell has given out figures. Mr. Crocker has talked about 80,000 plurality before. Mr. Crocker is always figuring closely on New York county, and Mr. Odell has never been known to make a claim that did not prove to be conservative. Mr. Odell's judgment rather than Mr. Crocker's seems to be taken by the public.

The betting odds, which temporarily went down to 3 to 1 on McKinley at the Hoffman House Tuesday night after the great Democratic rallies were over, went back to 4 to 1 and 4 1/2 to 1 yesterday afternoon, and there was almost no money to back Bryan even at those odds.

The Republicans hope to eclipse the Bryan meeting and destroy any good effect it may have given his party by the Roosevelt reception, which takes place on October 26, and they plan to overshadow Bryan's second reception on October 27 by the sound money daylight parade up Broadway on Saturday, November 3.

Mr. Bryan is now speaking in territory that is inhabited by a different Democratic tribe from that living in the Tammany wigwam. It is the tribe of Hill. The Hill Democrats are charged with having a design to knife both Bryan and Stanchfield. Mr. Bryan unwittingly hampered himself for this trip into Hill's hunting ground on Tuesday night when he paid high praise to Richard Crocker as the great Democratic leader and to Tammany Hall as the greatest political organization in the world in his speech in Cooper Union. This was commented on yesterday as a tactical blunder and the Hill men in the city were disposed to resent it.

The coal dealer seems to have his own weight.

Ex-Convict in Politics.

Washington Post.

"Boston Joe," an ex-convict, with a criminal record in several States, is one of the notables in politics in Montana this year," said Mr. Joe Mitchell Chapple, of the Hub, editor of the National Magazine, at the St. James. Mr. Chapple has been in Montana viewing the campaign, and is now on his way back to Boston. "This ex-convict," said he, "is proud of his record, and tells about it cheerfully among the voting population of Montana. He handles lots of money, and seems to be a splendid attraction in the Montana towns, which are just now excited over the vaudeville entertainment offered them."

All in Favor of 16 to 1, Said Hill.

Washington Post.

When ex-Senator David B. Hill addressed an audience at Springfield, Ill., Monday evening, he showed aversion to mentioning the free silver issue, but at last surprised his audience considerably by saying: "We are all in favor of 16 to 1. We are in favor sixteen votes for Mr. Bryan to one for McKinley." The New Yorker talked of imperialism as the paramount issue. A negro club was one of the striking features of the big parade that preceded the speaking.

Concord Beats Greensboro

Concord Standard.

It is said that the Greensboro police made but one arrest last week within the three days of the fair and one day of the show. That was a drunken negro. We can beat that. With a show supplemented by a court crowd there were a troop of arrests, one or two dead drunks, one or two unsurgical operations, one or two punctures of cranial coverings and the spilling of some gore. But it all goes in a lifetime.

David Jones, of Manayunk, was presented with twins the other day, both boys. Contrary to usual custom, he is going to name them both Samuel, so that they will be known as the Sams of David. Mr. Jones possesses a keen sense of humor.

A NIGHT OF TERROR.

"Awful anxiety was felt for the widow of the brave General Burnham of Machias, Me., when the doctors said she could not live till morning," writes Mrs. S. H. Lincoln, who attended her that fearful night. "All thought that she must soon die from pneumonia, but she begged for Dr. Kings New Discovery, saying that it had more than once saved her life, and had cured her of consumption. After three doses she slept easily all night, and its further use completely cured her." This marvelous medicine is guaranteed to cure all throat, hestard lung diseases. Only 50c and $1.00. Trial bottle free at C. E. Olton's drug store.

The person who discovers perpetual motion should make no end of money.

When a woman can't get a seat in a crowded car she doesn't regard it as a standing joke.

Do not get scared if your heart troubles you. Most likely you suffer from indigestion. Kodol Dyspepsia Cure digests what you eat and gives the worn out stomach perfect rest. It is the only preparation known that completely digests all classes of foods; that is why it cures the worst cases of indigestion and stomach trouble after everything else has failed. It may be taken in all conditions and cannot help but do you good.

"Mr. Freshleigh," said the business man to his clerk, "I wish you would take this bill and try to collect." "No sooner said than done," murmured Mr. Freshleigh.

This is the season when mothers are alarmed on account of croup. It is quickly cured by One Minute Cough Cure, which children like to take. Howard Gardner.

Count Zephlein's air ship ascended at Friedrickshafer yesterday afternoon, and was stirred against the wind and put successfully through various tactics and manoeuvres. It was then sailed in the direction of Immenstadt. The airship after a short flight towards Immenstadt, remained in the air for 45 minutes at the height of 6,600 metres and then safely descended to the lake.

A Friend of Dr. Wiley.

Wilmington Messenger.

The late Rev. Dr. Calvin H. Wiley, of the Presbyterian church, a distinguished, most useful, and gifted native of Guilford county, N. C. was the first superintendent of public schools and did more to start that system than any other dozen men combined, deserves to be held in honored remembrance. He was a warm personal friend of this writer, and we sat at his feet to learn when we were not more than twelve years old. When he wrote "Alamander" his first novel, he read to us every afternoon what he had had written in the morning. We were not more than sixteen, if so much. He was a superior man and lovable character. We see it stated in the Winston Sentinel that his faithful widow residing in that town, has notified the superintendent of the Raleigh public schools that she will present a portrait of Dr. Wiley to the "Wiley School," named in honor of him. The portrait will be presented in December and there will be appropriate exercises.

All this is very gratifying to the surviving friends of a man of accomplishments, ability and marked personal excellence.

A Head on Him.

Charlotte Observer

We don't know him, but what we are saying is that the man who writes that column of paragraphs on the editorial page of The Durham Herald every day, has a head on him and knows his business.

A LETTER FROM TEXAS.

Mr. John B. Wright,

Greensboro, N. C.,

Dear Sir:—Replying to your letter of 11, I beg to state that the Emerson pianos used in Baylor University always proved satisfactory. Teachers and students like them very much indeed.

Yours truly,

RUDOLF HOFFMAN,
Director of Music,
Baylor University.

* Many such testimonials from those using the Emerson are received by Mr. John B. Wright, of this city, who sells the instrument.

THE HANDSOMEST RESTAURANT IN THE STATE.

Dughi's restaurant for ladies and gentlemen, Raleigh, has been remodeled and refitted throughout. It is now the handsomest in the State. Elegant mirrors and pictures adorn the walls and the furnishings are first class. It is the only establishment in the State where guests are served by young ladies. During fair week the restaurant will be open day and night. Everything seasonable served. Dughi's ice cream.
